The University of Alberta in Edmonton is one of Canada's largest research-intensive universities with close to 30,000 students served by more than 5,000 faculty and staff.

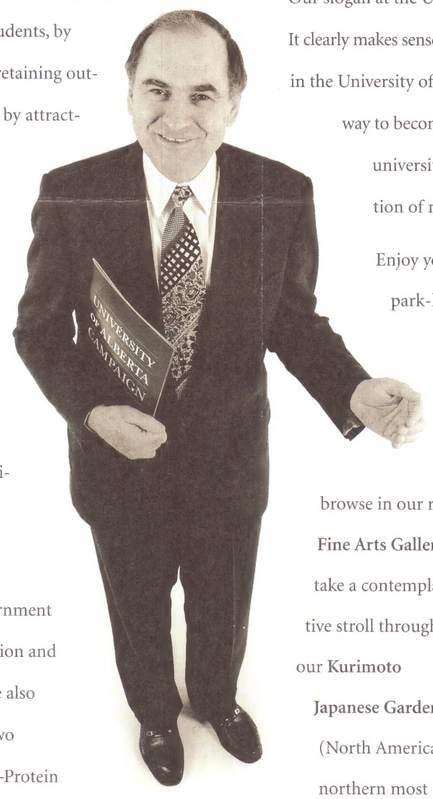
We have a very simple objective here at the UofA—to emerge from this and to enter the next century indisputably recognized, nationally and internationally, as one of Canada's finest universities.

We are clear on how we will achieve this—by attracting and developing outstanding students, by attracting and retaining outstanding staff, and by attracting outstanding resources.

We are well on our way to reaching this goal—our faculty, staff and students already have a number of national milestones to their credit…

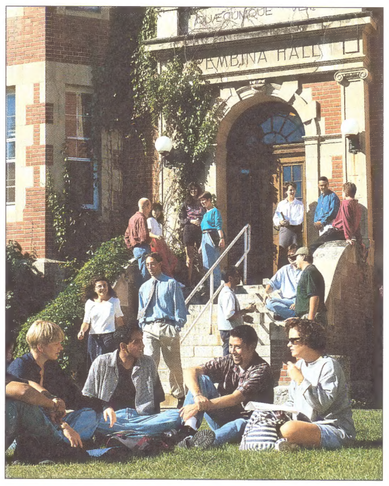
In three consecutive years since 1994, professors in the Faculty of Arts have been awarded Governor-General's Literary Prizes—national recognition for outstanding literary work.

UofA researchers have the distinction of participating in all the federal Networks of Centres of Excellence—centres for university/industry/government research collaboration and partnerships. We're also headquarters for two Network Centres—Protein Engineering and Sustainable Forest Management.



Don Mazankowski, former deputy prime minister of Canada and UofA Campaign Co-Chair

Our teachers are celebrated outside the classroom as well—in '96, the UofA boasted the most 3M Teaching Fellows of any university in Canada—teachers recognized nationally for outstanding effectiveness in the classroom.



UofA students lounge in front of historic Pembina Hall.

Aerial view of UofA campus and city skyline.

Our slogan at the UofA is…it makes sense. It clearly makes sense to study at, work at and invest in the University of Alberta. We are well on our way to becoming one of Canada's top three universities as we continue our tradition of national leadership excellence.

Enjoy your visit to our beautiful, park-like campus—taste the delights found in our many eateries in SUB and HUB International; browse in our renowned Fine Arts Gallery; take a contemplative stroll through our Kurimoto Japanese Garden (North America's northern most Japanese garden) at our Devonian Botanic Garden; or enjoy our world-class physical education facilities in the Universiade Pavilion or Van Vliet Centre.

UofA women's volleyball team captured its third consecutive national championship.
